I am pleased to write this letter of recommendation in favour of Rajdeep Das and for his future employment. He was employed as a Web Developer Intern in Cerebro Team from September 10, 2021 to December 10, 2021 and played a valuable role in our team.

Rajdeep has shown excellent research aptitude during his tenure with us. He has good communication skills and unparalleled motivation to timely completion of work. I can further attest that he has done an excellent job in the performance of the enumerated duties and responsibilities, and has always been very professional during his tenure. In addition, he was always a responsible person and was highly commended by his superiors.

Rajdeep has been a fantastic addition to our team. He assimilated easily into our department, quickly and thoroughly learn about all of our activities and did all the assigned tasks within the designated deadline. He would be a significant addition to your team and an asset to your workplace atmosphere given his interpersonal skills.
